

I had phone service with Supra Telecom for almost 3 years. I disconnected my service when they debited my checking account 4 times in one month causing over $100 in NSF Charges. I have been waiting on a refund check since the middle of Feb and still have not recieved it. I call the company and am told the amount but can not get a definate answer as to when I will get my money.